CDL Driver Training

Start your career as a commercial truck driver by earning your Commercial Class-A Driver's License.

In this comprehensive, 8-week program, you will learn from some of the best drivers in the region.

Training will start in the classroom, where you will learn about vehicles, basic truck driving controls, pre-trip inspection, yard skills, map reading, log books, emergency protocol and more. You will then move to a secure driving range, where you will get behind the wheel and learn the safe and efficient operation of various tractor-trailer vehicles. Experienced instructors will help you gain the skills and confidence to take your new skills on the road.

Program Starting Soon!!!
Space is Limited

Funding is available to qualified students!

Although no prior education or experience with trucks is required to enroll in the CDL program, students must meet driver qualifications set forth by the Bureau of Motor Carrier Safety and pass the physical examination requirements established by the Department of Transportation. Specifically, students must:

- Possess a high school diploma or GED
- Be 18 years of age or older with a valid driver's license and safe driving record
- Communicate in the English language sufficiently, as required by the US Department of Transportation
- Successfully complete a Department of Transportation (DOT) physical, which cannot expire during the training period
- Successfully pass a DOT federal drug screen
